GUILTY: The defendant was convicted of Counts 1-3 and 6-9 after a jury trial on April 18, 2012.

FACTS: On August 11, 2011 officers went to 3327 Edison Drive (Defendant's house), to locate [REDACTED]. Officers saw Matlock inside with Carmen Pacelli. Pacelli was holding a plastic baggie corner with a white powdery substance. Officer [REDACTED] rang the doorbell and Matlock came to the door and asked who was there through the door. Matlock did not answer the door. Pacelli admitted to [REDACTED] that he had gone to Matlock's house to purchase an eight ball of cocaine. Pacelli said that he flushed the cocaine down the toilet when he heard the police. The police obtained a search warrant and found MJ and three firearms. Two of the firearms were reported stolen from a 2009 burglary. Also found a black bag with a large quantity of a white powdery substance in a hard brick like-form. The amount was 119 grams of cocaine. Another 9mm handgun was found that had been reported stolen in a different 2009 burglary. The children tested positive for cocaine.

SENTENCE: Officer [REDACTED] testified at the sentencing hearing about his knowledge of the defendant's gang affiliation with the Midwest Kingz. He also testified that one of the gang members, [REDACTED], has pending drug charges and another member, [REDACTED] was recently convicted of murder.
